

IPE Common Reading: Five Days at Memorial

Guided Reading Questions

Write response directly across from the question in your notes.

Suggested Notes Guidelines: These notes are to help you during the large group discussion

- Note page numbers of examples
- Describe the example using enough detail to help you remember
- Identify key words or phrases

Identify ethical dilemmas or questions that arose while reading the book.

Describe a situation that made you uncomfortable and identify what aspects made you uncomfortable.

Provide examples of good teamwork (Provide rationale)

Provide examples of bad teamwork (Provide rationale)

Pinpoint times when people allowed things to happen that they did not seem to agree with.

Describe instances whereby the facts of the situation suggest race may have played a role in the handling of the disaster at both a local and national level.

Self-Reflection

These questions are designed to encourage you to reflect on the overall meaning of the book and how it can influence your life and/ or profession.

Can you think of examples in your own life that made you think about?

- The ethics of a situation
- When you regretted that you did not speak up about something you realized you should have spoken up about a challenging situation on a team