Bending the Health Care Cost Curve

MODERATED BY EVAN SMITH, CEO & EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, THE TEXAS TRIBUNE

The Texas Tribune is pleased to present, in partnership with Blue Cross Blue Shield of Texas, a three-part conversation series on where the state is headed on health care. Join us in person or on our livestream for the third installment of this series: a discussion of the reasons behind the ever-exploding cost of health care — closing in on education as the No. 1 line item in the state budget — and what medical professionals and elected officials can and should do about it.

Our panelists are:

- State Rep. Stephanie Klick, R-Fort Worth
- Sue Bornstein, executive director of the Texas Medical Home Initiative
- Daniel Varga, chief clinical officer and senior executive vice president for Texas Health Resources

THURSDAY, JAN. 28, 2016
11:30 AM - 1 PM

UNT Health Science Center
1000 Montgomery St., Fort
Worth, TX 76107

Complimentary lunch included
