

Hazardous Agent Attachment:

See SOP on using hazardous materials in animals.

1. Mark each applicable hazard and describe.

- Radioisotope
- Carcinogen
- Biohazard
- Chemical
- Other

DLAM Facility Manager and the Biological Safety Director must be consulted regarding the use of hazards before IACUC protocol approval. Recommendations may be submitted in the text box below or attached as a separate document.

2. DLAM Consultation

2a. DLAM Official Consulted:

2b. Date of Consultation:

Please attach DLAM consultation form in supporting documents.

3. Safety Consultation

3a. Safety Official Consulted:

3b. Date of Consultation:

3c. Please attach any SOPs/ documents safety provides during the consult. (feel free to use the space to provide other details from the consult):

3d. IBC Protocol Numbers:

3e. IBC Protocol Approval Dates:

4. Is animal expected to survive exposure? Yes No

4a. Length of time that animals/ environment considered hazardous:

4b. Maximum number of exposed animals that will be maintained at any one time:

4c. Decontamination procedures required for equipment, personnel, housing areas:

14d. How will contaminated animals, feed, bedding and disposable supplies be handled?